2 Questions to (1) the President of COP26

3 Observation of a period of silence

The House observed a minute's silence in memory of James Brokenshire.

4 Speaker's Statement: Tributes to James Brokenshire

James was a politician who commanded affection and respect from colleagues, no matter which party they represented. In a parliamentary career spanning 16 years, James's contribution to public life was immense: he served in successive Governments in Ministerial roles across the Home Office, as well as serving as Secretary of State for Northern Ireland and later as Secretary of State for Housing, Communities and Local Government. His commitment to serving his constituents in Old Bexley and Sidcup was also obvious to anybody who knew him.

I will always remember James for his positivity and good sense of humour – and for being one of the most friendly, thoughtful and well-liked people in the House of Commons. His passing is a profound loss to us all.

Our thoughts go out to his wife Cathy and their three children.

5 Urgent Question: Sexual misconduct in the Police (Kit Malthouse)

14 Environment Bill: Reasons Committee

Rebecca Pow reported that the Committee had agreed the following Reasons:

Lords Amendment 1

Because the provision made by the Amendment is unnecessary.

Lords Amendment 2

Because it is not necessary for soil health and quality to be a priority area in order to set a target.

Lords Amendment 3

Because the powers conferred by clause 2 should not be limited in the manner proposed.

Lords Amendment 12

Because the Secretary of State should not be placed under a statutory duty to meet interim targets.

Lords Amendment 28

Because it affects the areas of taxation, spending and the allocation of resources within government, and the Commons do not offer any further Reason, trusting that this Reason may be deemed sufficient.

Lords Amendment 33

Because the circumstances in which the court may grant a remedy on an environmental review should not be altered in the manner proposed.

Lords Amendment 43

Because the law already makes provision to protect pollinators from the effect of pesticides.

Lords Amendment 65

Because the powers conferred by clauses 105 and 106 should not be limited in the manner proposed.

Lords Amendment 66

Because the National Planning Policy Framework and the Forestry Commission and Natural England's standing advice already make provision to protect ancient woodland in England.

Lords Amendments 94 and 95

Because the timetable for the Secretary of State's review of legislation relating to forest risk commodities should not be brought forward.
