8 Health and Care Bill: Reasons Committee

Edward Argar reported that the Committee had agreed the following Reasons:

Lords Amendment 29

Because there is already a clause in the Bill about reporting in relation to workforce and it is not necessary to impose further or different reporting duties on that topic.

Lords Amendment 30

Because it is appropriate for the Secretary of State to have greater powers to scrutinise and intervene in NHS reconfigurations given the Secretary of State's accountability to Parliament in relation to these matters.

Lords Amendment 57

Because the Amendment would limit the power to transfer functions under the Bill.

Lords Amendment 81

Because it could affect financial arrangements to be made by the Commons, and the Commons do not offer any further reason, trusting that this Reason may be deemed sufficient.

Lords Amendment 85

Because it is unnecessary to impose a legal duty to carry out a consultation in relation to the subject-matter of this Amendment.

Lords Amendment 86

Because it could affect financial arrangements to be made by the Commons, and the Commons do not offer any further reason, trusting that this Reason may be deemed sufficient.

Lords Amendment 87

Because it is consequential on Lords Amendment 86, and the Commons do not offer any further Reason, trusting that this Reason may be deemed sufficient.

Lords Amendment 88

Because it is consequential on Lords Amendment 86, and the Commons do not offer any further Reason, trusting that this Reason may be deemed sufficient.

Lords Amendment 108

Because it is appropriate for the Secretary of State to have greater powers to scrutinise and intervene in NHS reconfigurations given the Secretary of State's accountability to Parliament in relation to these matters.

The Reasons were agreed to.
