Anneliese Dodds

Thangam Debbonaire

Sir Alan Campbell

That this House recognises the importance of the Ministerial Code for maintaining high standards in public life; endorses the Committee on Standards in Public Life report entitled Upholding Standards in Public Life, Final report of the Standards Matter 2 review; calls on the Government to implement all of the report's recommendations as a matter of urgency; and further calls on the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster to make a statement to the House on the progress made in implementing the recommendations by 20 July 2022, and each year subsequently.

■ Children's recovery and the cost of childcare

Keir Starmer

Stephen Morgan

Thangam Debbonaire

That this House notes it is a year since the resignation of the Education Recovery Commissioner Sir Kevan Collins; condemns the Government's continued failure in that time to deliver an ambitious plan for children's recovery, including supporting their mental health and wellbeing; is concerned that the inadequate attention being paid to childcare, both for the youngest children and around the school day, is allowing the attainment gap to widen and costs to soar for parents at a time when there is significant pressure on household finances; and calls on the Government to match Labour's ambitious plan for children's recovery, including measures to keep childcare costs down for parents while the cost of living crisis continues.

Amendment (a)Munira Wilson

At end add 'and further calls on the Government to facilitate learning by extending free school meals to all children in primary education and to all secondary school children whose families receive Universal Credit, because research shows children not eating a healthy diet will not perform as well at school as those who are well nourished.'
