24 Business of the House (Today)

Ordered, That at this day's sitting, the Speaker shall put the Questions necessary to dispose of proceedings on the motion in the name of Secretary Grant Shapps relating to Rail strikes not later than three hours after the commencement of proceedings on that motion; such Questions shall include the

Questions on any Amendments selected by the Speaker which may then be moved; the business may be proceeded with, though opposed, after the moment of interruption; and Standing Order No. 41A (Deferred divisions) shall not apply.—(Mark Spencer.)

25 Rail strikes

Motion made and Question proposed, That this House recognises the vital role of the railways in supporting people and businesses across the UK every day; condemns the decision of the rail unions to hold three days of strikes; believes those strikes will adversely affect students taking examinations, have an unacceptable effect on working people and a negative effect on the economy; and calls on the rail unions to reconsider their strike action and continue discussions with the industry.—(Secretary Grant Shapps.)

The Deputy Speaker announced a time limit on backbench speeches (Standing Order No. 47(1)).

Amendment moved, to leave out from 'House' to end and add 'does not want the national rail strikes to go ahead; and therefore urgently calls upon the Government, operators, Network Rail and the union to get around the table and resolve the issues on pay and cuts to safety staff to avert industrial action.'.—(Mr Tanmanjeet Singh Dhesi.)

Question put, That the Amendment be made.

The House divided.

Division No. 14

Ayes: 174 (Tellers: Colleen Fletcher, Mary Glendon)

Noes: 286 (Tellers: Steve Double, Scott Mann)

Question accordingly negatived.

Main Question put.

The House divided.

Division No. 15

Ayes: 293 (Tellers: Scott Mann, Steve Double)

Noes: 15 (Tellers: Chris Stephens, Bell Ribeiro-Addy)

Question agreed to.

Resolved, That this House recognises the vital role of the railways in supporting people and businesses across the UK every day; condemns the decision of the rail unions to hold three days of strikes; believes those strikes will adversely affect students taking examinations, have an unacceptable effect on working people and a negative effect on the economy; and calls on the rail unions to reconsider their strike action and continue discussions with the industry.

26 Genetic Technology (Precision Breeding) Bill: Second Reading

Motion made and Question proposed, That the Bill be now read a second time.
