

No. 25

House of Commons

Tuesday 28 June 2022

Votes and Proceedings

The House met at 9.30 am.

Prayers

1 Questions to the Chancellor of the Exchequer

2 Urgent Questions: (1) Rape: Criminal prosecutions (Victoria Atkins)

(2) Women's rights to reproductive health care in the USA (Amanda Milling)

3 Elected Representatives (Prohibition of Deception): Motion for leave to bring in a Bill (Standing Order No. 23)

Ordered, That leave be given to bring in a Bill to create offences in relation to the publication of false or misleading statements by elected representatives; and for connected purposes;

That Liz Saville Roberts, Richard Thomson, Caroline Lucas, Claire Hanna, Wendy Chamberlain, Bell Ribeiro-Addy, Stephen Farry, Hywel Williams and Ben Lake present the Bill.

Liz Saville Roberts accordingly presented the Bill.

Bill read the first time; to be read a second time on Friday 28 October, and to be printed (Bill 120).

4 Opposition Day: Leader of the Opposition (4th allotted day (Standing Order No. 14))

(1) Community Payback

Motion made and Question proposed,
That this House notes that the number of community sentences handed down fell by one quarter in the last three years; further notes that completed hours of unpaid work carried out by offenders has fallen by three quarters in the last three years; notes with concern that despite the end of lockdown restrictions in 2021, the number of offenders permitted to complete unpaid work from home has continued to rise; and calls on the Government to create community and victim payback boards to place communities and victims in control of the type of community projects that offenders complete to restore public faith in community payback.—(Ellie Reeves.)

5 Royal Assent

The Deputy Speaker announced that the Queen had signified Royal Assent to the following Act under the Royal Assent Act 1967:

Social Security (Additional Payments) Act 2022

6 Opposition Day: Leader of the Opposition (4th allotted day (Standing Order No. 14)) (resumed)

(1) Community Payback

The House resumed the debate.

Question put and agreed to.

Resolved, That this House notes that the number of community sentences handed down fell by one quarter in the last three years; further notes that completed hours of unpaid work carried out by offenders has fallen by three quarters in the last three years; notes with concern that despite the end of lockdown restrictions in 2021, the number of offenders permitted to complete unpaid work from home has continued to rise; and calls on the Government to create community and victim payback boards to place communities and victims in control of the type of community projects that offenders complete to restore public faith in community payback.

(2) Delivery of public services

Resolved, That this House notes that UK economic growth is forecast to grind to a halt next year, with only Russia worse in the OECD; further notes that GDP has fallen in recent months while inflation has risen to 9.1 per cent and that food prices, petrol costs and bills in general are soaring for millions across the country; believes that the Government is leaving Britain with backlogs such as long waits for passports, driving licences, GP and hospital appointments, court dates, and at airports; and calls on the Government to set out a new approach to the economy that will end 12 years of slow growth and high taxation under successive Conservative governments.—(Pat McFadden.)
