BUSINESS OF THE DAY

1. Employment Rights Bill: Second Reading

Until 10.00pm (Standing Order No. 9(3))

Notes:

King's Consent to be signified on Third Reading.

Kevin Hollinrake

Gareth Bacon

Greg Smith

Jerome Mayhew

That this House notes the balanced reforms made by previous Conservative governments to improve workers' rights, including the National Living Wage, the prohibition of the use of exclusivity clauses or terms in zero hours contracts and the introduction of shared parental leave and pay, and declines to give a Second Reading to the Employment Rights Bill because it has been rushed into Parliament without full consultation to meet an arbitrary 100-day deadline and has not been accompanied by an Impact Assessment considering the impact on the Employment Tribunal, especially as a result of the removal of the qualifying period for the right to claim unfair dismissal or the impact of the extra red tape on SMEs or the impact of establishing the Fair Work Agency; because the repeal of trade union laws will lead to more strikes and intimidation in the workplace, and will force taxpayers to foot the bill for inflation-busting pay hikes without public service reform; because the Bill undermines choice for workers about whether they want to fund political campaigning and forces firms and public bodies to bankroll more trade union facility time, including trade union diversity jobs; and because the Bill is contrary to the Government's stated goals of improving productivity and economic growth and will increase costs for businesses and consumers.
