BUSINESS OF THE DAY

1. OPPOSITION DAY (14TH ALLOTTED DAY)

Until 10.00pm (Standing Order No. 9\(3\))

- Universal credit and working tax credit

Keir Starmer
Jonathan Reynolds
Anneliese Dodds
Angela Rayner
Bridget Phillipson
Mr Nicholas Brown

That this House believes that the Government should stop the planned cut in Universal Credit and Working Tax Credit in April and give certainty today to the six million families for whom it is worth an extra £1,000 a year.

Amendment (a)The Prime Minister*The Chancellor of the Exchequer*Secretary Thérèse Coffey*Steve Barclay*Will Quince*Mark Spencer

Line 1, leave out from 'House' to end and add 'recognises that the Government's comprehensive £280 billion response to the pandemic included a temporary and emergency £6 billion increase to welfare support specifically designed to help low-income families, including increasing Universal Credit and Working Tax Credits by £1,000 for 12 months until the end of March 2021; notes that this is just one of a range of measures the Government has taken to support vulnerable families; further notes that the Government's response has reduced the scale of losses for the poorest working households by up to two-thirds; and regrets the Leader of the Opposition's call to scrap Universal Credit, a system which has delivered for nearly 6 million low-income people and families through this emergency.'

■ Access to remote education and the quality of free school mealsKeir Starmer*Kate Green*Angela Rayner*Wes Streeting*Tulip Siddiq*Mr Nicholas Brown

That this House believes that families need more support during school and college closures; and that those eligible should be guaranteed to receive the full value of free school meals for the duration of the school year, including during all holidays; and calls on the Secretary of State for Education to set a deadline to ensure that every learner has the resources required to learn remotely, and provide a weekly update to Parliament on implementing this.

Amendment (a)The Prime Minister*The Chancellor of the Exchequer*Secretary Thérèse Coffey*Secretary Oliver Dowden*Secretary Gavin Williamson*Mark Spencer

Line 1, leave out from 'House' to end and add 'notes that the Government is committed to supporting families to feed their children during both term-time and holidays; further notes the provision of more than £380m in supermarket vouchers to support pupils eligible for Free School Meals; welcomes the £170m COVID Winter Grant Scheme and £220m Holiday Activities and Food programme that will support children during the holidays and will continue to support families during the pandemic; believes that the images of poor-quality food parcels are unacceptable and insists on urgent action from leading suppliers to ensure the quality of all food provided meets the School Food Standards; further notes that the Government is investing over £400 million in remote education, including securing 1.3 million laptops and tablets to support remote education; further notes that over 700,000 laptops and tablets have been delivered to schools since the start of the pandemic, as well as over 54,000 4G wireless routers for disadvantaged children; further notes that the Government is partnering with the UK's leading mobile operators to provide free data to help disadvantaged children get online as well as providing support for schools to introduce and set up on a digital education platform; and thanks all the parents, teachers, and major telecom operators for their support

Notes:

The selection of the matters to be debated has been made by the Leader of the Opposition (Standing Order No. 14\(2\)).

The call list for Members participating will be available on the House of Commons business papers pages.

2. BACKBENCH BUSINESS COMMITTEE

Afterwards

BACKBENCH BUSINESS

- Errors in payments made to victims of the Equitable Life scandal

Bob Blackman

Mr David Davis

Sir Edward Leigh

Dame Margaret Hodge

That this House expresses grave concern regarding the Government's continued inaction with respect to the injustice suffered by Equitable Life policyholders, the vast majority of whom have only received partial compensation compared to the confirmed losses directly attributed to regulatory failures despite the Government's acceptance of the Parliamentary Ombudsman's findings to compensate victims in full in relation to the maladministration of Equitable Life; notes the concern previously expressed by the Public Accounts Committee on the transparency and accuracy of the payments being made to victims; further notes the Government's failure to fulfil the Committee's request to publish an intelligible and transparent explanation to policyholders on how to verify the correctness of the compensation they have received; notes examples of grossly inaccurate payments, adjusted only when identified by policyholders, gathered by the Equitable Members Action Group (EMAG); notes the Government's continued insistence that there have been no mistakes in the methodology for calculating payments to policyholders; and therefore calls on the Public Accounts Committee and the Public Administration and Constitutional Affairs Committee to establish a joint inquiry into the accuracy of the payments made to victims of the Equitable Life scandal.
