BUSINESS OF THE DAY

1. ROAD USER CHARGING (OUTER LONDON): TEN MINUTE RULE MOTION

Up to 20 minutes (Standing Order No. 23)

Gareth Johnson

That leave be given to bring in a Bill to provide that the Mayor of London may not impose charges for driving in Outer London; and for connected purposes.

Notes:

The Member moving and a Member opposing this Motion may each speak for up to 10 minutes.

2. FINANCE \(NO. 2\) BILL: SECOND READING

Until any hour (Standing Order No. 15\(1\)\(a\))

Alison Thewliss

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the Finance (No. 2) Bill because it derives from a Budget which continues austerity, leaves millions without any covid support at all and brings furlough to an end in September 2021, fails to provide the necessary stimulus to compensate for the economic impact of Brexit, contains measures which are part of a September cliff-edge created by the Government, with the ending of self-employed support, the £20 universal credit uplift and the five per cent hospitality VAT rate, fails to match the Scottish Government's year-long non-domestic rates relief package, fails to tackle tax avoidance and, in the year of COP26, fails to take the necessary action on tackling climate change with inadequate measures to encourage moving to greener energy use.

Keir Starmer

Anneliese Dodds

Bridget Phillipson

James Murray

Valerie Vaz

Mr Nicholas Brown

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the Finance (No. 2) Bill because it derives from a Budget that failed to guarantee a pay rise for NHS workers after their unparalleled service over the last year, undermines the country's economic recovery, targeting household finances by freezing income tax allowances before increasing the rate of corporation tax, does nothing to mitigate the effect on family finances of the sharp council tax rise in April, contains measures connected with a cut to social security later in the year, and fails to set out the ambitious plan for jobs and growth that is needed to help the country emerge strongly from the worst economic crisis of any major economy.

Caroline Lucas

Claire Hanna

Clive Lewis

Geraint Davies

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the Finance (No. 2) Bill because it derives from the 2021 Budget which, whilst containing a positive update to the Bank of England's mandate on climate and environment, failed to act on the climate and ecological emergency with the urgency or ambition needed to restore nature or meet the UK's obligations under either the Paris Agreement or the Climate Change Act; failed to include a climate and nature test for all spending and fiscal measures whilst providing for a super-deduction tax break which risks turbocharging investment in fossil fuels; failed to deliver transformational investment to create good green jobs across the country, including in the care sector, in the context of rising unemployment due to the covid-19 pandemic, whilst imposing a real terms pay cut on NHS staff; and failed to grasp the fundamental fact, as set out in the Treasury's own Dasgupta Review, that the economy is embedded in the biosphere and that therefore, for the health and prosperity of citizens in the UK and around the world, including future generations, what is needed is an urgent economic reset and a commitment to a truly fair and green recovery based on new economic goals that prioritise the health and wellbeing of people and nature, rather than the endless pursuit of GDP growth on a finite planet.

The call list for Members participating will be made available on the House of Commons business papers pages.
