CHAMBER AND COMMITTEE INFORMATION

This document is compiled by the Table Office as a guide to events likely to take place in and around the Chamber on Tuesday 11 May. It also includes a list of Select Committee meetings planned for that week. From Wednesday 12 May, the Order of Business and Summary Agenda will be published daily. These and other House business papers can be obtained online or in hard copy from the Vote Office.

TUESDAY 11 MAY

The State Opening of Parliament will take place. The House will meet at 11.25am for the Queen's Speech. Due to covid-19 restrictions only the Speaker and invited party leaders and Government and Opposition whips will process to hear the speech delivered in the Lords. All other Members must remain in the House of Commons Chamber and not attempt to join the procession.

Afterwards the House will suspend until 2.30pm. After introductory statements by the Speaker, the Outlawries Bill will receive its first reading. This is a purely formal proceeding whereby the House asserts its right to deliberate on matters of its own choosing before those proposed by the Government in the Queen's Speech: no Bill is produced nor is there any debate. The debate on the Queen's Speech is then opened. Two backbench Members from the Government side will propose and second a Motion for an Address (thanking the Queen for the Speech), after which the Leader of the Opposition and the Prime Minister will speak. Debate on the Queen's Speech may continue until 10.00pm on this day. The Speaker will announce at the start of the debate which subjects are to be debated on each subsequent day. The half-hour end-of-day adjournment debate will be initiated by Sir David Amess on the subject of the case for a national memorial for Dame Vera Lynn.

SUBSEQUENT DAYS

Debate on the Queen's Speech will be resumed on subsequent days. The debate normally lasts for six sitting days. On the final day of the debate the House votes on the Motion, and there may be votes on amendments to the Motion on the penultimate and final days.

VIRTUAL PARTICIPATION IN PROCEEDINGS

On 30 December 2020, the House agreed an Order extending virtual participation to debate and certain other proceedings in accordance with a scheme prepared by the Speaker. On 25 March the House extended these provisions until 21 June. The scheme for virtual participation in proceedings and the revised Members' Guide to Chamber proceedings are available on the intranet.
